

ESU 2017 Conference and Doctoral Program on Entrepreneurship

Leuphana University Lüneburg is happy to invite you to the 15th anniversary of the ESU Conference and Doctoral Program on Entrepreneurship. We are looking forward to meeting you all from the 04th to the 09th of September 2017, in Lüneburg, Germany.

Over the course of the conference, we will take a closer look at key topics in entrepreneurship research. This will include plenary sessions, workshops and paper sessions. The workshops will focus on writing reviews, theory building, qualitative and quantitative research, conducting experiments and transition into the job market.

Among others to be announced we are happy that Michael Frese, William McKinley, and Andreas Rauch agreed to hold a keynote speech/workshop during the conference. For further information and updates regarding the program, speakers, and workshop chairs please refer to the conference program.

As in previous years, the parallel group sessions for doctorate students will be divided into early stage, work in progress, and mature student groups, to guarantee fruitful and productive sessions. Please indicate your preference when you submit your abstract.

The deadline for submissions of abstracts is April 1st 2017.

Formatting rules:

Max. 500 words (to fit on single page), single spaced, Times New Roman 12 pt, capitalized first letters in title, no more than ten words in title, no reference list. Since all abstracts are reviewed using a double blind review process, it is compulsory that neither your name nor your contact details appear on the submission.

Please, indicate in your e-mail: author(s) name(s), main affiliation(s), email address(es) of all authors in the order of appearance on your paper. The title and the order of authors from the one-page abstract will appear in the program. The one-page abstracts will appear in an abstract booklet. If you want to submit, please send your abstracts by email to:
